Service options

Our staff are available to prepare and serve your buffet on the morning of your conference which allows you the freedom to enjoy your special occasion with the knowledge that your guests are well looked after. Chefs are available for $70 per hour and bar staff/ waiting staff are available for $60 per hour. The number required is dependent upon function size and the level of service required.

We have put together a variety of platters to perfectly complement any of our cocktail menus and especially for our BBQ Buffet Menus. They are suitable for any occasion; from a lazy Sunday afternoon around the pool, to a cocktail party. We can deliver platters straight to your door step for a delivery fee of $70.

The menus online have current pricing. These prices are valid for 6 months. Quotations that are for a function that is more than 6 months away have a rise in their pricing equivalent to 5% per year to cover inflation.
